HOW: ARTWORK REQUIREMENTS

Artwork submittals must meet the following requirements:

- Entry must be completed on an 8.5”x11” sheet of plain white paper. Oversized artwork will not be accepted.
- Artwork must be drawn VERTICALLY (portrait). Horizontal artwork will not be recognized, and all juried evaluation of the artwork will be done from a vertical perspective.
- All artwork must be ORIGINAL. NO traced, trademarked, or copyrighted characters such as Disney, superheroes, cartoons, etc. No “copycat” ideas of artwork from other artists. Artwork must be truly the work of the student and represent the age, grade, and skill of the student.
- Do not sign or write a name on the front of the artwork. Name should be included on the entry form and attached to the submission using a paperclip, please do not staple the artwork.
- Artwork must be two-dimensional using mediums such as pencil, ink, crayon, colored pencil, etc.
- Artwork may not have been previously submitted to the 2024 I Love Royal Oak contest.
- Artwork must be completed and submitted by ONE student, no group submittals.
- Each student may submit only one artwork for consideration.
- Artwork must be accompanied by a signed and completed permission waiver. Artwork missing guardian contact information will not be considered.
- Artwork must be titled and accompanied by a brief artist statement. Artist statements should be kept to around 3 sentences and submitted using the attached form.
